Color Compass Corporation Expands British Columbia Presence with Acquisition of Magrath Auto Supply

Kelowna, BC – September 1, 2026 – Color Compass Corporation is pleased to announce the acquisition of Magrath Auto Supply, a respected automotive refinishing and collision repair supplier serving Kelowna and the surrounding British Columbia market.

The acquisition strengthens Color Compass Corporation's commitment to the automotive collision repair industry throughout British Columbia while expanding its ability to deliver industry-leading products, technical expertise, business development support, and customer-focused solutions across the region. Magrath Auto Supply officially joins the Color Compass Corporation family on September 1, 2026.

As part of the transition, customers can expect business as usual. The Magrath team will continue operating with the same customer-first philosophy that has earned the company a strong reputation throughout the Okanagan market. Color Compass will maintain the existing business model while focusing on strategic growth opportunities with existing supply partners. Customers will continue to benefit from the strong local relationships, technical expertise, and service excellence that have been the foundation of Magrath Auto Supply's success.

A key strategic focus will be the continued support and expansion of the Axalta business throughout the region, providing collision repair facilities with enhanced access to products, technical support, training, and business solutions designed to improve performance and profitability.

Mort Hall, Vice President of British Columbia, states, "We are extremely excited about the Magrath team joining Color Compass and partnering within the region to grow all sectors of the business as well as bring the many value propositions of Color Compass to the customers of Magrath. The combination of our organizations creates tremendous opportunities for our employees, supplier partners, and customers while maintaining the local relationships and service excellence that the market has come to expect."

The acquisition further reinforces Color Compass Corporation's long-term commitment to British Columbia and its strategy of supporting collision repair facilities through industry - leading products, technical expertise, training, equipment solutions, and business development programs.

Together, Color Compass Corporation and Magrath Auto Supply will continue building strong customer relationships while delivering innovative solutions that help collision repair businesses succeed in an increasingly competitive marketplace.
